6	John Peeples	10th Place - 1.60% (283 votes)	$3,307.00		John arrived in Seattle nearly ten years ago to make airplanes. He takes every opportunity to enjoy Puget Sound's great outdoors, getting involved with the community, volunteering for a youth organization, and helping students with their homework. He seeks to maintain big citizenship and smaller government as established by Washington State's founders and as envisioned in her state constitution. Seattle's government exists to serve the people and do those things the citizens cannot be expected to do for themselves. Let's keep it that way. Like many of his neighbors, he has recently watched as the city council has made decisions that adversely affect the lives of every city dweller. 7	Don Harper	7th Place - 4.91% (783 votes)	$20,925.00		I was born in Shoreline and after graduating from high school hitchhiked around the west coast for a while. Settling down - a bit – I got a job teaching math to blind students through the City of Seattle and the federal government in the ESP or Employment Supplement program. Restless, I hitchhiked over 70,000 miles around the USA, Canada, Mexico and Guatemala meeting many people of all ages, ethnicity and political viewpoints. This has given me a great appreciation of how good people are regardless of their approach to life. I have been involved with the Queen Anne Community Council for 21 years and have served as Chair of the Parks Committee for 18 years. I've worked with the community to raise over $2 million for park improvements, purchase of Smith Cove Park, and the development of the Thomas C Wales Park. I served for 7 years on the Citizen Oversight Committees for the 2000 Pro Parks & 2008 Parks & Green Spaces levies. I treasure my two Parks' Denny Awards for volunteer stewardship.	dharpersdistrict7@gmail.com	http://www.donharperforseattle.com/
